

Corporate Packages

To make your choice of courses for you employees a bit easier for you, we have arranged a couple of packages for, which not only cover language lessons, but also some seminars with background information about Swiss German and some other specialities of the country!

Company package “light”

The objective of the “Company Package Light” is to give your employees a first impression of the country they just arrived in (and don’t speak German at all), and obviously its language. After this course you’ll be equipped with the most important vocabulary you need to cope in every-day-situations and hopefully get to understand your neighbours speaking Swiss German!

10 sessions for max. 10 participants, 90 minutes each, 1 session per week

- 1 seminar about the World of Languages
- 1 seminar about Decoding Swiss German
- 8 language sessions
- Including the softlanding Survival Cards!
- Sessions held in your premises

Cost: 4250,00 CHF net

Company package Business

The idea of the “Business Package” is to give the participants a sound background on German Grammar and a comprehensive vocabulary, which will enable them to understand newspaper articles and basic business correspondence in German. The ideal candidate for this course has a bit of a background in German, however ambitious participants with no knowledge of the language are welcome too!
